

CALUM CLARK

D.O.B:

10.06.1989

HEIGHT:

1.93M

WEIGHT:

97kg

CLUB:

Northampton Saints

NATION:

England

POSITION:

Flanker

- 2012: Announced in England Elite Player Squad
- 2010 – Present: Northampton Saints
- 2010: England U20 Captain
- 2006 – 2010: Leeds Carnegie

Calum joined Northampton Saints in the summer of 2010, instantly showing his physicality and athleticism in both the lineout and open play. Featuring heavily since joining the club, Calum has proved equally adept in both the back and second rows. With 35 appearances in the 2010/2011 season, he has started important games including the Heineken Cup final and Premiership semi-final. He was also the winner of the Saints Young Player of the Season for 2010/11.

Heralded as one of England's most exciting forwards, Calum is also an extremely modest and humble young man who puts 100% into anything he does. Through perseverance and hard work, Calum has been rewarded with a place in England's 2012 elite player squad. Many are excited to see Calum fulfil his young promise which he has shown on numerous occasions for Northampton and England at junior level.