Toby is establishing a deserved reputation as one of the most talented and innovative coaches in English rugby. He is enjoying a long and happy relationship with London Irish from joining the Academy staff in 2002 to being appointed Head Coach in 2008. In his first season in charge London Irish went all the way to the Premiership Final, losing by the narrowest of margins to Leicester Tigers. Toby was a player-coach for Blackheath Rugby while upholding a profession as an electrician. He attributes some of his success and man-management skills to his former profession. An extremely friendly, impressive individual with a great sense of humour, Toby is highly respected by his coaching staff and players. A true pleasure to be around.
